SETTLEMENT LANDS

In regard to the four big tracts of land near Hamakua and Kohala which the Commissioner of Public Lands has advertised for lease. Commissioner Pratt says that a clause has been in seried specifying that at any time dur-ing the 21 years which the leases are to run, any part of the lands which are desired for settlement may be withdrawn, the rent being reduced in proportion to the amount of the land which the leasee has to surrender.

The tracts are all large ones, comprising several thousand acres each, but the Commissioner says that it would be impossible to lease them in small tracts, as under present condi-tions they are fit only for grazing. Much of the land is first-class agricul-tural land, but lack of transportation.

nt to use it for that purpose,
"But I hope," said Mr. Pratt this norning, "that long before the leases have expired, the country will be opened up and transportation facililes so greatly improved, that much of will be desired for settlement. That why I have inserted the clause proriding for the withdrawal at any time

There are a number of other tracts hich will be advertised for lease soon as soon as other matters are out of he way and there is any call fo

The matter immediately on hand is that of the Alewa tract, comprising 80 lots up Nuuanu. This tract has been tied up for about a year but was re leased December 26.

Contractor, I. M. Whitehouse says Numbur reservoir by the recent storms and the washing out of a temporary lam at the back of the works. He says but the concrete core wall is not cracking or sinking and is as solid as the day it was completed. It rests on solid rock and has stood the strain of the hast severe storm splendidly.

In all, the cost of repairs to be charged up against the storm will be in the neighborhood of $6000.

It is probable that the matter of a bond for the ship Babcock will be ar-ranged for shortly and the vessel al-lowed to depart. The bond will be fixed at $40,000
